All 4-H and FFA Horse Entries are due at the Yuma County Fair Office on or before March 16, 2018.

EXHIBITORS ARE RESPONSIBLE for the welfare of their horses while on the fairgrounds. (The Yuma County Fair Board, The Yuma FFA District, Yuma County 4-H Leaders Association, the Cooperative Extension, and the University of Arizona are not responsible for any personal injury or for the loss or damage of tack and/or horses.)

EXHIBITORS MUST FOLLOW RULES AND REGULATIONS ON THIS PAGE.

- ALL ENTRANTS must be members in good standing of Yuma County 4-H and/or FFA.
- A 4-H Exhibitor also showing as an FFA Exhibitor may not show the same horse at the Yuma County Fair.
- 4-H and FFA SHOWMANSHIP CHAMPIONS are eligible for, and expected to participate in the Round Robin Showmanship Contest on Friday at 7:00 PM. Exhibitors should read and become familiar with the Round Robin Showmanship Contest Rules on page 17 in the Fair Book.
- Exhibitors must groom and care for their own horse. This is the members project and their responsibility. Parents and leaders are not permitted to help (except in the interest of safety).
- Rubber Banding (securing the boot to the stirrup with a band) IS NOT allowed for safety reasons. SPURS are not allowed during Goat Tying.
- PROPER DRESS: FFA exhibitors are to wear official FFA show ring dress. 4-H exhibitors are to conform to the JLC dress code of black or blue pants, White Long sleeved shirt that is collared and tucked in and fastens in the front. Closed toed black or brown leather boots, a belt, a Western hat for Showmanship classes and an approved equestrian helmet for the riding classes.
- ARIZONA STATE FAIR Rule Book and the Yuma County 4-H Horse Rule Book will be used as a guide. NO STALLIONS may be shown in any class.
- HORSE EHBITORS will park in the Horse Arena parking area of the Fairgrounds. When safety is a factor, Horses will be led by a parent or Leader from the parking area to the arena.
- ANY INDIVIDUAL, youth or adult, exhibiting unsportsmanlike conduct or abuse of an animal will be required to leave the Fairgrounds immediately.
